

Caring Together Newsletter

This Issue: Caring for the Caregiver: Mind and Body

Summer 2021 Edition - Volume 2

Dear Caregiver,

As a caregiver your main focus is often keeping your loved one safe, healthy and active, but do you care for yourself in the same way? The reality is that many caregivers have a hard time maintaining their personal health and well-being while also managing caregiving responsibilities. This edition of Caring Together features resources and strategies to maintain your physical health by preventing falls, in addition to tools to implement self-care into your routine. Remember, caring for yourself is one of the best ways to care for those around you.

Falls Prevention Awareness Week is September 20-24

Every year one in four older adults experiences a fall, making falls the leading cause of both fatal and nonfatal injuries for older Americans. However, falls can be prevented through practical lifestyle changes, communication with physicians, and improved balance and strength. Here are some tools and resources to help keep you and your loved ones safe:

"Saving Claire" Fall Prevention Documentary and Expert Panel Discussion

When: Friday, August 27 10am-12pm
Where: Zoom
Cost: Free!

Does Linda Goldman have to kill her friend Claire to save her?

“Saving Claire” tells the story of how Clearwater resident Linda Goldman became a playwright at the age of 70 and wrote “Denying Gravity” - the fall prevention play about a woman, a fall, and the dramatic effect on her life, her family and her friends.

Join us for an exclusive virtual screening of the documentary, followed by a discussion panel of local subject matter experts in physical and occupational therapy; technology and home modification; movement and fitness; and social work.

Taking Care of YOU: Self Care for Family Caregivers

By, Family Caregiver Alliance

Family caregivers of any age are less likely than non-caregivers to practice preventive healthcare and self-care behavior. Caring for yourself is one of the most important—and one of the most often forgotten—things you can do as a caregiver. When you care for yourself, the person you care for will benefit, too.

TCARE

Free Program to Support Caregiver Burnout

Thanks to a generous grant from the Florida Blue Foundation, ElderSource is launching a new caregiver support program called TCARE, which stands for Tailored Caregiver Assessment and Referral System Program.

How can TCARE help?

- Reduces your stress and provides strategies for reducing root causes of caregiver burnout.

- Creates a care plan just for you that offers support and improves your effectiveness as a caregiver.
- Connects you with resources that best meets your needs.
- Promotes aging in place and may delay nursing home placement for your loved one.

Did you Miss Our July Virtual Caregiver Conference?

The reality of the caregiving journey is that it can be dark, messy, and emotionally exhausting. As a loved one's disease or condition progresses, it can be more difficult to manage care while also preserving their dignity. If you feel like you're in the midst of the mess, there is something in this workshop for you.
